Competition Results

“Aussie Revenge Attempt”

July 2007

The competition was once again an enjoyable time for all and best of all, no stress for the organizer.

It was great to see Lee Shackelford from Taiwan again and even better he was beaten by three of the Aussies who played him. Revenge is sweet! It was also great to have Karsten Zeidler from Melbourne, David Lawrence and Scott Driscoll from Canberra and Greg Kelleher from Armidale, make the trip to Sydney. Let alone the stalwarts and new comers from Sydney.

Paul Collins, who was both un-defeated and competing in his first competition run by myself, won the competition, receiving the excellent trophy donated by David Lawrence. Greg was awarded the Prussian army donated by David Lawrence and excellently painted by Scott Driscoll for destroying six elements in the last round. Adrian Williams made up not defeating anyone all day, by winning the lucky door prize, a piece of terrain donated by Greg Kelleher. Congratulations to all.

The complete results are as follows:
